

Take your Aikido to the next level by joining the Seminar by Koretoshi Maruyama Sensei

SEPTEMBER 16-19, 2015

Beginners and advanced students are welcome to participate in a unique opportunity to develop their aikido under the guidance of a Japanese aikido master!

In September 2015 Master Koretoshi Maruyama will be teaching an Aikido Yuishinkai Seminar in Honolulu.

Koretoshi Maruyama Sensei practiced other martial arts when he was young, but it was only through Morihei Ueshiba's Aikido that he found his way. In 1967 he became an instructor in the founder's dojo. In 1971, after Ueshiba's death, he became head instructor in the Ki no Kenkyukai Aikido school, founded by Koichi Tohei.

Tohei promoted Maruyama Sensei to 8th dan and Chief Instructor. Maruyama Sensei taught Aikido in many countries worldwide until 1991, when he retired to a zen monastery for a period of 10 years. After this period he founded Aikido Yuishinkai (Aikido without borders). In 2001 he left the monastery to return to his teaching activity.

It is our honor to host Koretoshi Maruyama Sensei in Honolulu this September. All students of Aikido are welcome. Meeting students from other dojos brings us closer to Aikido's spirit of harmony. Aikido Yuishinkai is "Aikido without borders".
